LU

The purpose of the Violence in the Workplace: Prevention and Response Lunch and Learn Series is to provide employees with the skills and knowledge required to prevent workplace violence/threatening behaviour that may be committed against any person(s) or property at Saint Mary's University and to provide techniques that will enable an effective response if workplace violence/threatening behaviour does occur.

Upon request, the following workshops can be customized and delivered as an on-going series of training and awareness sessions to employees within the University community.

- x Critical Skills for Communicating in Conflict
- x Asserting Yourself in Conflict Situations
- x Managing the Hostile Individual
- x Anger Management
- x Shifting from Positions to Interests
- x Understanding and Managing Harassment and Discrimination
