

(assessment, accommodations, interpretation services), business (productivity, management, retention).

- The impact of policies for managing diversity on relationships between the majority group and minority cultural groups, especially those coming from formerly colonised countries, those from aboriginal communities and members of other founding cultures; modes of interaction and spaces for interaction between cultural groups; representation of the other and the perception of self

Organized jointly by Saint Mary's University and Laval University, the conference will take place at Saint Mary's University in Halifax (Nova Scotia, Canada) from Thursday, 14 June to Saturday, 16 June 2018.

Proposals for papers (250 words), proposals for posters (150 words), as well as declarations of interest in participating to roundtables or in "3-minute Thesis" presentations should be sent to the following e-mail: icst@smu.ca.

Proposals and declarations of interest should include a short bio. The deadline for submitting proposals is Friday, 15 September 2017.

Information about the programming of the conference will be posted and updated regularly on the following website: www.icstconference.com.