

The Donald Higgins Memorial Scholarship

For a graduate student in the Atlantic Canada Studies Program

Description

Dr. Donald Higgins, a professor at Saint Mary's University since 1977, was a devoted educator in 1988, was an In-Canada resident for approximately 30 years. He was born in St. John's, Newfoundland, and spent his childhood in St. John's and Lunenburg, Nova Scotia.

As a graduate student, Donald Higgins received a master's degree in the Atlantic Canadian Studies Program, Atlantic University, in 1977. His research interests were primarily in the history of the Atlantic region.

As an academic, including Donald Higgins received a master's degree in the Atlantic Canadian Studies Program, Atlantic University, in 1977. His research interests were primarily in the history of the Atlantic region. He worked for the Faculty of Arts Research Office. He was involved in the creation of the Goosebrook Institute, which is the research arm of the Atlantic Canada Studies Program (ACS). He made a significant contribution to its development and 'teaching' in the ACS Program.

Donald Higgins also worked as president of the Atlantic Canadian Studies Program at Saint Mary's University.

Donald Higgins was a devoted educator and a significant contributor to the development and teaching in the ACS Program.

Criteria

The criteria for the award of the scholarship are: academic record, research interests and 'teaching' record. The award will be made to a graduate student who is currently enrolled in the Atlantic Canada Studies Program at Saint Mary's University.

The award will be made to a graduate student who is currently enrolled in the Atlantic Canada Studies Program at Saint Mary's University.

Eligibility
Any graduate student who is currently enrolled in the Atlantic Canada Studies Program at Saint Mary's University and who is currently considered for the Donald Higgins Memorial Scholarship, must submit a letter addressed to the Co-ordinator of Atlantic Canada Studies setting out the reasons why he or she should be considered for the Donald Higgins Memorial Scholarship.

The deadline for applications is the first of October of each year.

For more information, please contact the Co-ordinator of Atlantic Canada Studies at Saint Mary's University.

Donald Higgins was a devoted educator and a significant contributor to the development and teaching in the ACS Program.

Donald Higgins was a devoted educator and a significant contributor to the development and teaching in the ACS Program.

Donald Higgins was a devoted educator and a significant contributor to the development and teaching in the ACS Program.

Donald Higgins was a devoted educator and a significant contributor to the development and teaching in the ACS Program.

Donald Higgins was a devoted educator and a significant contributor to the development and teaching in the ACS Program.

Donald Higgins was a devoted educator and a significant contributor to the development and teaching in the ACS Program.