

Terms of Reference for the Nova Scotia Graduate Scholarship

š ^]vš D Œ Ç [• hv]À Œ •]š Ç

The Province of Nova Scotia has created a Graduate Scholarship Program to help advance the economic and social wellbeing of Nova Scotians by investing in graduate thesis research in the following defined priority sectors: Ocean/Marine Technology, Life Sciences, Information and Communication Technology, Clean Technology, Aerospace and Defence, Renewable Energy, Financial Services, Health, Agriculture, and Forestry. (Amended 2024)

ELIGIBILITY, SELECTION AND RETENTION CRITERIA FOR POSTGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIPS

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA (in order of priority)

1. Applicants must carry out thesis research in one of the following provincial priority sectors

Ocean/Marine Technology

Nova Scotia Graduate Scholarship Application Form

Deadline: Students must submit their application and supporting documents to The Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research (FGSR) by May 20 via email to Heather.Gray@smu.ca

Graduate Students may apply for the Nova Scotia Graduate Scholarship through FGSR Awards Committee of FGSR will review applications and decide on the distribution of awards.

Student: Please complete section 4 and submit to FGSR Heather.Gray@smu.ca by May 20

1. Provide your name: A1.2Lang (enpp3904 (o)-3.995 (a)5 (S)2.998 (c)-5 (o)5 (ti)-4.004 (a)5 ()9.2005 (o)5 (u)4.c

